From the Heart of the Pastor

As we start the summer season, it's easy to slip into a more laid back pace; with vacations, longer days, and a break from the usual routines. But even as our schedules shift, our walk with God should remain steady and intentional.

Ephesians 5:15-16 reminds us, "Be very careful, then, how you live—not as unwise but as wise, making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil."

One of the ways we experience intentional growth is by continuing to gather for worship and encouragement. I'm grateful to share that on Sunday, June 8th, while Sharon and I are in Dallas for the Southern Baptist Convention Annual Meeting, Ray Cochran and David Howell will be leading our services. Both of these faithful men are dear friends, and I know you'll be encouraged by their messages and leadership. Doug Harris and Kris Imgrund will be leading our evening service, and Bill Brown will lead our Wednesday evening Bible study. Please pray for Sharon and I as we travel, and also for all the SBC messengers as we gather to discuss matters of faith and mission.

Let's also lift up our youth and youth leaders in prayer as they prepare for summer camp. This is always a powerful time in their spiritual journey and an opportunity to step away from distractions and hear clearly from the Lord. Pray that they'll encounter God in a life-changing way and return with a renewed passion for living out their faith.

May we all be intentional this month—intentional in prayer, in worship, in service, and in loving others well. God has so much in store for us this summer. Let's walk closely with Him and make every moment count.

In Christ,
Pastor Gary
